Brief Bio

(181 Words)

Xav A. (pronounced Zayv A) is a singer, songwriter and producer creating a vibrant, exciting fusion of R&B and Pop!

Xav's musical mission began after being featured on season 3 of NBC's a cappella competition show, The Sing-Off. After performing on the show, his group was featured in major publications such as Rolling Stone and Yahoo! Entertainment.

Xav has also partnered with Live.Me, which is one of the top 10 highest grossing social apps on Google Play and iTunes. This garnered him over 20,000 followers on the app.

His music video "Old Milk" was premiered on the R&B music website SoulBounce--the premiere was so successful that the article remained in their top trending stories for over one week.

Fashion-wise, Xav's style is simple—brightly colored solid shirts, colorful patterned socks and solid-colored shoes dominate his wardrobe. He elevated his fashion presence by releasing his own clothing line full of colorful and playful cartoon designs for all ages and genders!

Now based in New York City, Xav A. is continuing to spread his colorful look and sound all around.
